AREA OF EXPERTISE

Brad Cooke joined Colliers International in 2006 as Vice President of Multifamily Investments. His primary role is client relationships, ensuring clients' needs are fully met and that they are aware of the current market conditions and opportunities. His dedication to the team's clients and hands-on personal approach has helped create long-lasting business relationships with top national and international companies.

Brad is responsible for client communication, property tours, coordination of the due diligence process, and assisting with underwriting as well as market and economical analysis. Brad's in-depth market knowledge has proven to be a valuable asset to his team.

BUSINESS BACKGROUND

Brad's experience includes serving as a designated broker/owner of Interlock Realty, a residential real estate firm, to the leasing agent for over one million square feet of industrial space.

He started his career in 2002 as an office leasing agent and has since been exposed to all areas of real estate. Brad has found his passion and focus in the multifamily investments sector of commercial real estate.
