Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 Disclosure – New Business Quotes

On December 26, 2007, the President of the United States signed into law amendments to the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the “Act”), which, among other things, extend the Act and expand its scope. The Act establishes a program under which the Federal Government may partially reimburse “Insured Losses” (as defined in the Act) caused by “acts of terrorism”. An “act of terrorism” is defined in Section 102(l) of the Act to mean any act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury – in concurrence with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General of the United States – to be an act of terrorism; to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property, or infrastructure; to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of certain air carriers or vessels or the premises of a United States Mission; and to have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.

The federal government’s share of compensation for Insured Losses is 85% of the amount of Insured Losses in excess of each Insurer’s statutorily established deductible, subject to the “Program Trigger”, (as defined in the Act). In no event, however, will the federal government or any Insurer be required to pay any portion of the amount of aggregate Insured Losses occurring in any one year that exceeds $100,000,000,000, provided that such Insurer has met its deductible. If aggregate Insured Losses exceed $100,000,000,000 in any one year, your coverage may therefore be reduced.

The charge for Insured Losses is included in the total policy premium. The included charge for Insured Losses is indicated below, and does not include any charge for the portion of losses covered by the federal government under the Act.

The Included Charge For Insured Losses Is:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ 4% of your total policy premium if your primary location is in a Designated City (as listed below).</li> <li>▪ 2% of your total policy premium if your primary location is not in a Designated City (as listed below).</li> </ul>

Designated Cities are:
Albuquerque, NM	El Paso, TX	Miami, FL	San Diego, CA
Atlanta, GA	Fort Worth, TX	Milwaukee, WI	San Antonio, TX
